

Home to Roost

Birgitta Lagerström | Mathilda Högberg

Hello there! My name is Twinkletoes and I live in a big garden in a tiny village in the south of France. In the henhouse live Cocky and his whole family: first, there are his three wives, Fizzy, Anastasia and Penny Wong; then come my brother and three sisters, Siipii, Lucky, Flounder and Tiger. I am number five, the youngest, little black Twinkletoes.

We love to hide and play in the garden.

A family from Australia and their two children, Isobel and Leo, live in the main house. Our henhouse has been built mainly by the children.

Our village.

This is the main house where Isobel and Leo are staying.
